

MUSICAL PROGRAM

IN CONNECTION WITH BIBLE CONFERENCE GLENDALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The committee who have the work of arranging the program for the four days Bible Conference have not overlooked the music. Mrs. Zetta Gibbons is chairman of the committee, and the following is the program which, aside from the addresses, will prove a strong attraction.

The Bible Institute male quartet is among the finest musical organizations in the country. It will be remembered that they sang at the pre-convention C. E. concert. They will sing at the opening night of the conference, Thursday, 7:45. Dr. Harrower, who will sing on Saturday evening, is too well known in Glendale to need any further word. Mrs. Gibbons will sing special selections composed by Miss Judson Harris of Glendale, who has a special gift in the line of sacred music. Mr. Williamson is the quartet tenor, and possesses a remarkably fine voice. His selection, "It was for me," will be rendered on Friday evening. Miss Harmstrong of the Bible Institute will sing on Saturday afternoon, a selection which has special reference to the themes of the conference, namely, "One day." Miss Clara Waugh of Glendale will be the conference pianist.

The committee hope to add to the following program:

Thursday, May 24th.—Bible Institute Male Quartet: Messrs. Williamson, Trowbridge, Books and Dodelan. "God shall wipe away all tears," Stebbins. "Sweeter as the years go by," Mrs. C. H. Morris.

Friday afternoon, May 25th.—Mrs. Zetta Gibbons. "Caught up," Annie Johnson Flint and Judson Harris. "We shall be caught up to meet the Lord in the air." I Thess. 4:17. Mr. Williamson, "It was for me," Charles D. Blount.

Saturday afternoon, May 26th.—Miss Harmstrong. "One Day," Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman and Chas. H. Marsh.

Saturday evening, May 26th.—Dr. Harrower. "God shall wipe away all tears," from Gaul's "Holy City."

Sunday afternoon, May 27th.—Mrs. Zetta Gibbons. "That Day," Annie Johnson Flint and Judson Harris.

The general public is most cordially invited to all sessions of the conference. The dates are May 24-27. The complete program was published in last Saturday's Glendale Evening News.

WEEKLY BAND CONCERTS

Beginning on Thursday evening of this week the Glendale Municipal Band will give weekly concerts from a band stand that has been built by the city on the lot west of the Evening News building. It has been thought best by the management of the band and by the city trustees to have all concerts given at the same place instead of changing from one part of the city to another, as has heretofore been the custom. Thursday's program will open at 8 o'clock and is as follows:

1. March, "The Jewel City"—Hicks
2. Overture, "Raymond"—Thomas
3. Bolero, "Floras de Cuba"—Brockenshire
4. Intermezzo, "After Sunset"—Pryor
5. Waltz, "Idalia"—Bennett
6. Descriptive, "The Forge in the Forest"—Michaelis
Synopsis: At Night, Daybreak, By the Brook, Morning Prayer, The Forge.
7. Selection, "Erminie"—Jackowski
"Star-Spangled Banner"

MAINE PICNIC

On the 9th of June, 1917, there will be a big all-day picnic of Maine people at Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles.

This year we are trying to make a "Back Home Week" atmosphere. We want you there and every other person in Southern California hailing from the State of Maine. The county registers and headquarters will be used all day so you may enroll and find friends, even with several thousand present. Come early and make yourself known. There will be a large reception committee and you'll be on it. Bring your lunch basket well filled and a cup for coffee. There will be a short and spicy program, but above all you will enjoy meeting again and visiting with the old friends you knew back home. Further information from R. W. Chamberlain, 842 Maple street, Pasadena, or from T. R. Crowell, 404 Grant Bldg., Los Angeles, Phone F2607.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

PENMANSHIP CLASS SHOWS IMPROVEMENT—GIRLS' LEAGUE TO ELECT

During the past few days much attention has been attracted by the splendid exhibitions of the work done by Mr. Sawyer's penmanship classes. Two specimens of each student's writing, one being written the first of the term, and the other recently, are hung up side by side. The improvement that has been made in each class is nothing short of miraculous. Where the hieroglyphics of the first sheet of some of the students are hardly legible, the second sheet appears to be a direct copy from a writing book. Mr. Sawyer deserves even more credit than he has already received by the excellent results that he has obtained.

As this is about the time of year when elections seem to be most popular among the students, Jeannette McLennan, who is president of the Girls' League, has announced that the annual election of the officers of that organization will take place next week. All the nominations have been turned in, and as there is quite a large number of candidates for the various offices, the election promises to be an unusually close one.

Harold Venske, this year's editor for the Stylus, has made arrangements whereby a special assembly will be held this afternoon during the sixth period. Every member on the entire staff is scheduled to make a speech, and this fact alone should be of sufficient interest to the students so as to insure a good sale of this year's annual. The several editors have been spending much time on their respective parts lately, and it is hoped that their hopes will be realized by a record sale of the books.

DEATH OF DANIEL HUFFRER

Mr. Daniel Huffrer, West Fifth street, Los Angeles, passed away at his home at 2:20 Tuesday afternoon. He and his estimable wife were life long friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Westlake of Oak street, Glendale, they having all lived in Muncie, Indiana, all their young days. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Adams, a Baptist minister of Los Angeles. Three beautiful solos were sung by Miss Herron, and other services were conducted by the Odd Fellows, followed by the old soldiers at the cemetery. An appropriate song was sung by Rev. J. H. Henry of Glendale. The remains were laid to rest in beautiful Forest Lawn cemetery. Thus ends the life of a kind and loving husband and father, a good citizen and kind, obliging neighbor. He was a retired business man and had spent several years on the Pacific coast, living for a short time in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Westlake, during a period while they made an extended trip to their old home in Muncie, Indiana, Washington D. C., and other points of interest.

The sympathy of friends go out to the bereaved ones in this hour of sorrow. Many beautiful flowers were in evidence.

NEGRO BURNED AT STAKE

ANGRY MOB OF TWO THOUSAND WREAK VENGEANCE ON BRUTE WHO CONFESSED TO MURDERING CHILD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW ORLEANS, May 22.—Eli Person, a negro, who confessed to assaulting and beheading a fifteen year old girl at Potts Camp, Miss., was burned at the stake near there this morning. A mob met the train which was transporting the prisoner, overpowered the guard and whisked the prisoner away in an auto. Persons implicated two others in his confession. One of these has been captured and a crowd of five thousand people seeking the third has him cornered. It is planned to burn the two at once. Virtually every store in Memphis was closed this morning and thousands awaited the execution. Two thousand unmasked persons, among them many women, witnessed the burning. Person's ears were severed from his head and he was otherwise mutilated before being burned. Some one proposed shooting the negro, but a relative of the girl demanded that he be made to suffer as she had. The girl's mother witnessed the execution. Women sang "John Brown's Body" as the flames claimed their victim.

RED CROSS MEETING

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN GIVE SPLENDID REPORTS AT ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Last night the first Red Cross meeting in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce was well attended. Among those present were Chairman John Hyde Braly, Treasurer F. H. Vesper, Secretary Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Chase, Dr. Henry R. Harrower, Dr. A. M. Duncan, Tropic, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bartlett, Rev. Dr. C. Irving Mills, Mrs. John R. White Mr. and Mrs. Franz, Mrs. Frank England, Mrs. G. Walters, Mr. C. W. Kirk, Mr. A. T. Cowan, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Salo Desky, Mrs. S. A. Chase, Mrs. Oliver and Walt. Le Noir Church, besides a number of others whose names were not obtained by the publicity committee.

Several committees reported. Mrs. R. E. Chase, 28 new members, 5 transferred to Glendale from Los Angeles; total of 268 enrolled in Glendale.

Mrs. Beamon has discovered several new species of comfort bags, none yet investigated however deserving the name. But there is variety enough and to spare to keep her still hunt after the illusive standard comfort bag from becoming monotonous. She further reports $50.75 donated. Her "Star" had donated $10 of its flower money to the Red Cross. She moved that the First National Bank and the Bank of Glendale be thanked for donating $10 each, and Mrs. West for $1. So ordered.

Mrs. Hutchinson was not present, but sent in a report that the first meeting for teaching would be held Tuesday (this) evening, in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, 1010 West Broadway.

Mrs. Bartlett's report showed practical activity of the purchasing committee in getting the things needed.

Dr. Harrower's showing about the concerts was more satisfactory to the others than to himself, as he had hoped for larger returns. The program containing President Wilson's autograph is to be again sold to the highest bidder for the benefit of the Red Cross, and the program itself donated to the Chamber of Commerce.

On motion, all the committees handling money will get together this week so the treasurer can make a full report to the meeting next Monday evening, in Chamber of Commerce hall.

Mr. C. W. Kirk reported that in the auto of Chairman Braly, who had paid all expenses, he had been accompanied around the country by Mrs. Beamon, Mrs. Pigg, Mrs. Hunchberger, Mrs. Button, Mrs. Ocker and Mrs. Leppelman, and they had collected $108, all of which was turned in to the treasury of the Glendale Red Cross.

Dr. Harrower, chairman committee of entertainments, reported that he had arranged to have Miss Ellen Beach Yaw sing at a garden party at the home of Mr. Chas. H. Toll. Also, that across the street from the Chamber of Commerce, at Miller's Music Store, 1009 1/2 West Broadway, an informal concert would be given soon. Mr. Miller playing on the pipe organ he himself had built, and Dr. Harrower would sing. No admission fee, but contributions would be acceptable as donations to the Red Cross. He cordially thanked the many who had helped him with the concerts, which had netted about $180.

Mr. McRae reported that he had made a great many speeches in numerous neighboring places since the last meeting, and that the interest in the Red Cross is rapidly growing.

Fullerton, Redlands, Santa Ana and Alhambra have local chapters. He thinks we should have one, and so report to Washington direct.

Mrs. Bartlett said she and the other members of her committee, Mr. McRae and Mrs. Beamon, visited Pasadena and made inquiry. They had decided that Glendale would do better, all things considered, as a local chapter.

Mrs. Evans, chairman hospital garment committee, gave a very interesting written report, showing that committee has been and is busy. She thanked the different schools and clubs that assisted her or have offered to work: Entre Nous club, the Milford street Neighborhood club and the Central avenue Parent-Teacher association of Casa Verdugo.

Miss Douglas of Columbia avenue school said her children are collecting papers to sell for the Red Cross, to get material to make pillows; several already donated, for which they should receive all thanks. Miss

GOOD CITIZENSHIP

OBSERVING RULES GOVERNING THE USE OF THE UNITED STATES FLAG

So much is said nowadays about rules governing the use of the United States flag. These rules are timely and should be observed, but while careful attention is being given to the observance of rules, the qualification of good citizenship must not be neglected. The United States flag is an emblem of liberty and justice, and as such it deserves the respect of everybody who gets protection and justice beneath its folds, but when it comes to the observing of so many red tape rules a true lover of "Old Glory" hesitates to unfurl the stars and stripes in front of his business building, fearing that he will be violating some law that governs the proper use of the flag.

The Stars and Stripes have a significance to the true American, wherever he is able to cast his eyes upon them. Respect and honor the flag of our country on account of its being the emblem of all that is patriotic and good in our land, but do not place too much emphasis on red tape requirements as to the time of day it must appear and as to its exact position. Yes, all honor possible should be given to our flag, but may we not be made to forget its significance by being required to observe too many red tape rules.

NOTED TEACHER AND WRITER GIVEN FAREWELL

A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmack, 715 N. Central avenue, Tropic, last Friday evening, by about thirty-five or forty members of the Glendale New Thought Center. The affair was in honor of Edward S. Jerome, who is to return to his home in Cincinnati, Ohio, at an early date, after having spent nearly two years in Southern California.

Mr. Jerome has conducted the Bible Class at the New Thought Center in Glendale for the past year. He is a teacher of unusual ability. He has made many friendships while here, and a cordial welcome awaits him on his return to California, and especially Glendale, which all hope will not long be delayed.

Among the guests present were Mrs. Adeline Becker of Los Angeles and Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. Riley of Hollywood. Three songs by Dr. Riley were greatly enjoyed. A cafeteria luncheon was served and the decorations were in the national colors, all of which was particularly appropriate.

CHAPTER L MEETING

A business meeting of Chapter L, P. E. O., will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 sharp at the home of Mrs. Maxwell, 203 North Kenwood. A full attendance of members is desired.

MRS. R. E. CHASE, Pres.

Douglas is sub-chairman for that school, appointed by Mrs. Evans. Miss Woolridge, for same purpose in Intermediate school. Mrs. George Carter, for knitting, doing fine work. Several friends have agreed to help Mrs. Carter. Last Thursday there were fifteen workers in the Christian church bungalow. So the Red Cross work in Glendale looks bright indeed.

Mrs. Curtis Bates, chairman of Eagle Rock Red Cross, Mrs. E. L. Whitaker, secretary, and Mr. G. E. Candee, treasurer, were present on invitation of Chairman Braly. They told of their flourishing branch, about 200 members. They said they would consider the plan for co-operating with Glendale, very earnestly suggested by Chairman Braly.

The question of Glendale becoming a chapter was discussed pro and con, with a view to seeing which plan would be best for the Red Cross. It was finally agreed to canvass the subject thoroughly as each could, then meet next Monday evening, at the same place, Glendale Chamber of Commerce, with all who could be induced to come, and vote on the question whether Glendale should become an independent Red Cross Chapter, and so be authorized to report direct to and receive instructions from the Washington headquarters. Meeting adjourned to meet next Monday, 7:30 p. m., May 28th, at Glendale Chamber of Commerce. The large attendance shows that interest in the Red Cross is growing.

WALT. LE NOIR CHURCH, Publicity Committee Glendale Red Cross.

Mrs. Reynolds of Ivy street spent the day Sunday with Miss Lydia Stanton, 410 Park street, Tropic.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1917

ALL SHOULD BEAR EQUAL BURDENS

The present war conditions are calling for additional taxation on all kinds of property, incomes and salaries. To this additional tax there should be no objection, providing the proper use is made of the money resulting therefrom. The tax that the average citizen is required to pay is only a small per cent. as compared with the tax that is placed upon the man who is called to arms. A man with an earning power of $75, $100 or $150 per month is put in the service of his country at $30 per month, and in addition to this tax, which may be measured by the reduction in salary, he is taxed with a possibility of great suffering and maybe loss of life. If the war should continue for a period of four years, the men at home go on following their usual pursuits of life, accumulating wealth and enjoying peace and happiness, while the men in war are placed in just the reverse condition.

With these facts being clearly understood, every man, old and young, who does not go to war should gladly pay an additional war tax. The expenditure of money should not be withheld providing the expenditure of such money will add to the comfort of those who are serving their country. All honor to the men who are stepping forth to fight for their country. The act is a noble one and now is the time to substantially recompense them for their patriotism and bravery. Do not wait until they die from the effects of cold and hunger on the battlefield, and then spend money to erect over their graves expensive monuments. The proper thing to do is to care for the living, cast roses of comfort in their pathway while they can get some enjoyment from them.

The man who is called to the front for a period of years must necessarily abandon his plans as a common citizen. The profession or trade in which he had become so interested must be discontinued and a complete change in plans adopted. In fact the young man who enters the service of his country can have no plans of his own, more than to obey the command of his superior. It is therefore the duty of the men who remain at home to bear all just burdens placed upon them without a murmur.

REPORT DISEASES TO HELP WIN WAR

Any resident of California who has knowledge of the presence of a case of communicable disease and who fails to report it to the local health authority, as the law requires, may be a real enemy to the country. The California State Board of Health is impressed with the necessity for keeping the communicable diseases under strict control, particularly now that we are at war.

A single case of any communicable disease, without supervision, might be the cause of an outbreak that would reduce greatly the efficiency of the California men who may soon go to the front. Civilian recruits are flocking to the training camps now being established in different parts of the state, and to bring any of the communicable diseases into one of these camps might cause exceedingly disastrous results. Unless physicians and citizens supply information relative to the presence of the communicable diseases, the State Board of Health is unable to know where to direct its efforts for disease control.

The diseases reportable by law in California include chickenpox, mumps, measles, malaria, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping-cough, smallpox, tuberculosis, pneumonia, anthrax, beri-beri, epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis, Asiatic cholera, dengue, dysentery, erysipelas, German measles, glanders, gonococcus infection, hookworm, leprosy, pellagra, plague, poliomyelitis, rabies, syphilis, tetanus, trachoma, typhus fever, ophthalmia neonatorum and yellow fever.

Physicians or laymen who know of the presence of any of these diseases, should report at once to the health officer of the city or county in which the case may be. Not to do so may be a factor in limiting our efforts and resources for winning the war.

MILLION WOMEN WIN VOTE TO-DAY

One million Ohio women to-day were granted the right to vote for presidential electors in the fall of 1920.

Although the act, signed by Governor Cox February 21, was subject to a 90-day referendum, anti-suffragists failed to secure the needed number of signatures to prevent it becoming a law.

The bill was introduced last winter by Representative James A. Reynolds, Cleveland. It passed the lower house, 72 to 50, and the senate approved of it, 19 to 17.

Ohio is the fourth state in the Union to grant women partial suffrage, following the lead of Illinois, North Dakota and Indiana.

Eleven other states have full suffrage.

Following a series of addresses on war problems as they affect grocers, nearly five thousand members of the Retail Grocer Association will attend a banquet in the Terminal auditorium, Toledo, Ohio, to-night, that will make heavy inroads on grocer supplies of the city which is entertaining them in annual convention. The day's program included addresses by W. B. M. McIntyre, Davenport, Ia.; W. F. Fiske, New York; C. F. Kurtz, of Iowa State University, and L. M. H. Attenbach of Denver.

The Glendale Evening News should be delivered at your home by the carrier not later than 4:30 p. m. every day except Sunday, and usually much earlier than that time. Subscribers who have not received their paper at 4:30 o'clock, should notify the office by phone: Glendale 132, Home 2401.

ONE WAY, ANYHOW

An Irishman out of work applied to the boss of a repair shop in Detroit. When the Celt had stated his qualifications for a "job," the superintendent began quizzing him a bit. Starting quite at random he asked: "Do you know anything about carpentry?"

"Sure."
"Do you know how to make a Venetian blind?"
"Sure, I'd poke me finger in his eye."

RIGHT TO THE POINT

The quiet-looking boy at the foot of the class had not had a question; so the teacher propounded him this one: "In what condition was the patriarch Job at the end of his life?" "Dead," was the calm response.

A colored man came running down the lane as if a wild animal were after him.

"What are you running for, Mose?" called the colonel from the barn.

"I ain't a-runnin' fo'," shouted Mose. "I'se a-runnin' from!"

Grandpa (meeting little eight-year-old James)—"Hello, James, where have you been to-day?"
James—"School, grandpa."

"Fine, grandpa."
"What classes are you in, James?"
"Well, grandpa, I have only one more kid to lick and I will be in a class by myself."

PRELIMINARIES OF A FIGHT

"Hello!"
"Leave me alone."
"How much of a loan shall I leave you?"

Mr. Goodleigh—"Her age really surprised me; she doesn't look twenty-eight, does she?"
Miss Snappe—"Not now, but I suppose she did once."

TOWEL SHOWER

Under the ruse of a business meeting of the B. B. B. class of the West Glendale Sunday School, Misses Eva and Helen Gould of 611 South Central avenue gave a "shower" Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Helen Bott, a June bride. The improvised business was disposed of and the guests were asked to stay for a social hour. A novel game was the "Demonstration of mind reading by mental suggestion." Misses Helen Bott and Helen Gould were selected as suitable subjects, being supposed to be in special "aposition," having been born on the same day of the same month of the same year and having the same proper name. The subjects were blindfolded and Miss Gould as the "positive" was told to select some object in the room and concentrate her mind upon it for one minute, with her hand upon Miss Bott's shoulder, but to give no intimation of what the object was. At the expiration of the time Miss Bott was told to touch at random one of the surrounding persons, each of whom held an object. The object would be given her, she should examine it still blindfolded and follow the first inclination suggested to her mind and she would be led to the object of the demonstration. The article touched proved to be a reel from a fish pole. Naturally the first inclination was to wind it up and the object of the demonstration was revealed, tied at intervals on the string and consisting of a supply of beautifully decorated towels.

A two-course luncheon was served, table and room being pleasingly decorated in scarlet and green. Those present were Mrs. Pixley, the class teacher, and the Misses Helen Bott, Tessa Bott, Alda Gervais, Irene Gervais, Ruth Spafford, Irene Jones, Lela Whitehead, Marjorie Singleton, Mable Robins and the hostesses.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy. Probably showers to-night and Wednesday. Southwesterly winds.

NOBODY INJURED

Monday afternoon when all was serene and quiet on the streets of Glendale, and autos were passing to and fro at Brand boulevard and Broadway, a garage trouble car made its way slowly south on Brand towing a large touring car. The rope connecting the cars was probably 8 feet in length, and both drivers were using the utmost care.

When at the Broadway crossing a light express auto of the Ford make, driven by the most considerate driver in the city, wended its way westward and, for some cause unknown to mankind, attempted to pass between the cars connected by the rope.

The rope being a strong one and the ends being securely fastened to the respective cars, it was impossible for the expressman to put his stunt over, and his car came to a standstill, while the people gathered around to care for the wounded and dying, of which, alas, fortunately there were none.

That was one time the straight and narrow way was not the best road to travel.

BROADWAY SCHOOL SUCCESSFUL

A most successful vegetable market was held last week by pupils of the Broadway school. The display of large, fresh vegetables was truly amazing. One booth was so well filled with such splendidly grown potatoes, lettuce, onions, radishes, etc., that the chairman of the Glendale Garden Society committee went to the principal and asked whether the vegetables were truly of the lad's own raising. "Yes, indeed," was the prompt reply, "that boy has been growing garden produce and selling to his neighbors for the past two years." A fine example for others to follow! The first prize was awarded to George Kober and Calvin Foss. So close was the competition that the Garden Society committee decided to give a second prize and to divide it between a booth captained by Samuel Tupper (with William Walsh and Dana Shadrock as part-

STUDY OIL RESOURCES

The importance of the oil resources of California in the war emergency is signified by the appointment by Governor William D. Stephens of a committee on Petroleum Oil Production to advise the State Council of Defense. Max Thelen, President of the state Railroad Commission, has been named chairman of this committee, which is to consist of three members. Professor David M. Folsom, of Stanford University, has also been appointed to the committee. The third member has not yet been chosen, but so important do Chairman Thelen and Professor Folsom consider their task, that they have plunged into it already, and cleared the way for a thorough probing of the actual conditions of the petroleum industry throughout California.

The field of inquiry of the committee is concisely stated by Governor Stephens in a letter to Chairman Thelen in which he says that it is "to obtain facts relating to the production, distribution and utilization of petroleum, and to make recommendations."

"(1) As to measures to be taken to meet any emergency arising from the present war.

"(2) The increased production and highest utilization of the petroleum resources of this state as an integral part of the United States, having regard both to industrial development and the needs of the national government."

Governor Stephens further says: "As the matter is one of urgent interest to the state and nation, I would appreciate early efforts on behalf of yourself and colleagues, and as prompt a report as possible to me of the result of your findings."

The committee will report directly to Governor Stephens as soon as it has in hand statistics from which the facts of the oil supply may be gained.

Experts both of the Railroad Commission and of the State Mining Bureau will assist the committee, which will hold conferences in San Francisco and Los Angeles with the officials of the various oil companies of the state, and representatives of the federal government, including the United States Bureau of Mines. These meetings will be so scheduled as to give opportunity to all the various oil interests to lay before the committee all figures in their possession.

The critical aspect of the oil situation is emphasized by the oil companies' statement that in 1917 there was a daily decrease in the storage of oil of 35,800 barrels, and that in 1916 and the first three months of this year the decrease of crude oil stocks stored in this state over last year was 15,900,000 barrels.

The Southern Pacific Company, which controls large oil fields, says that at the present rate the stock of stored fuel oil held by the company will be depleted in 60 days, and that within five months they will have consumed all of the oil they have purchased for future delivery.

The average production of oil in the state at present is set down at 8,000,000 barrels a month.

Oil is of increasing necessity to many of the public utilities of California, which are regulated by the Railroad Commission. It is used in enormous quantities by the railroads and steamship companies, the gas and electric companies, and, of course, by manufacturing in general.

Chairman Thelen said today that he and Professor Folsom would spare not a day in going thoroughly into the soil conditions, and hoped to be able to report to Governor Stephens in the very near future. They invited, he said, the aid of all interested parties.

HELPFUL STUFF

There recently entered the office of a Denver physician a young man making this announcement:

"I want to thank you for your valuable medicine, doctor."

"It helped you, did it?" asked the physician, much pleased.

"It helped me wonderfully."

"How many bottles did you find it necessary to take?"

"To tell the truth, doctor, I didn't take any. My uncle took one bottle, and I am his sole heir."

BETWEEN FRIENDS

Edith (conceited)—"I suppose a lot of men will be made miserable when I marry."

Marie—"Why, how many men are you going to marry?"

HE'S A REPEATER

"Why do you think Jones is stupid? He says a clever thing often."

"That's just it,—he should say it only once."

TO TEACH MAKING "FOREIGN" CHEESE IN FIVE-DAYS COURSE AT UNIVERSITY FARM

Epicures who have been deprived of foreign cheese by the war are discovering the possibilities of California-made cheese. Now the University of California is going to help California cheese-makers how to rival foreign-made cheeses in deliciousness and character. There will be a special five-day course for cheese-makers at the University Farm at Davis, from Monday, May 28, to Saturday, June 2, inclusive, in which the methods will be taught of making "California Jack Cheese" and "California Half-skim Jack Cheese," two types now in unexpected demand because of the wartime famine in foreign-made cheese. People who can no longer obtain Parmesan cheese from Italy, to grate for salads and soups, are finding that the "California Half-skim Jack Cheese," a dry-firm cheese, is excellent for grating.

When the cheese-makers gather at the University Farm at Davis they will be given the following five-days programme of instruction by the Dairy Industry Division:

Monday, May 28, 8 to 10 a. m., registration; 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., practice in making Jack cheese; 3 to 5 p. m., practice in testing milk and whey.

Tuesday, May 29, 8 a. m., lecture on making Jack cheese; 9 a. m., lecture on the testing of milk and its products; 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., practice in making Jack cheese; 3 to 5 p. m., practice in testing milk and whey.

Wednesday, May 30, 8 a. m., lecture on molding and pressing Jack cheese; 9 a. m. lecture on acidity tests; 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., practice in making Jack cheese; 3 to 5 p. m., practice in judging Jack cheese.

Friday, June 1, 8 a. m., lecture on making half-skim Jack cheese; 9 a. m., lecture on handling and curing Jack cheese; 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., practice in making Jack cheese; 3 to 5 p. m., practice in testing milk and cream.

Saturday, June 2, 8 a. m., lecture on how to keep records in a cheese factory; 9 a. m., lecture on the handling and disposing of whey; 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., practice in making Jack cheese.

The cost of board and room at the University Farm for the five days need not exceed seven dollars; there will be a registration fee of one dollar. Those wishing to attend the cheese-making course should write at once to the Dean of the University Farm School, Davis, Yolo County.

KEEP PERISHABLE FOOD COOL, CLEAN AND COVERED

Heat, dirt, improper handling, flies, insects and rats or mice are the greatest food wasters.

The moment meat, fish, milk and eggs are allowed to get warm they begin to spoil.

Bacteria and germs multiply rapidly in slightly warm food and quickly make it dangerous or unfit to eat.

Keep perishable foods in the coolest, cleanest place you can provide, preferably in a good refrigerator or ice house, but at any rate in covered vessels suspended in the well or in the coolest clean place in your home or cellar.

Dry cold is a better preservative than damp cold.

The dust particles in the air carry molds and germs.

Meat, fish and milk are ideal breeding grounds for such germs. Keep your food covered so that these bacteria and germs will have as little chance as possible to get on your food.

Ordinary cleanliness demands that flies be kept out of our homes and away from our food.

Health protection makes it essential to banish flies. Keep all food covered, or at least screened from these carriers of deadly disease and filth. Destroy flies by every possible means.

AN AWFUL SPRING

Flora—"Did you visit Venice when abroad?"

Dora—"Yes, indeed. But they were having a dreadful flood when we were there, and everybody had to go around in boats."

Jimmy had not come up to his father's expectations in his studies at school and an explanation was demanded.

"Why is it," inquired the irate parent, "that you are at the bottom of the class?"

"I can't see that it makes any difference whether I am at the top or the bottom," replied Jimmy pacifically. "You know they teach just the same at both ends."

COMMUNITY VEGETABLE MARKET

The success of the juvenile vegetable markets held on school grounds has proved so marked that the Glendale Garden Society has decided to continue the good work during the entire summer. Mr. O. W. Tarr has kindly offered the use of the lot on the southwest corner of Broadway and Louise as a market site. On this lot will be erected suitable counters on which the young vegetable growers may display their produce. Some sort of awning will also be planned. This market will be held once a week, and all young people may offer for sale any vegetables grown by themselves or their family on vacant lots or in their own back yards. It will serve as a dignified business center where surplus stock may be disposed by amateur growers. The project has received warmest commendation from city officials, P. T. A. officers and leading residents. From Los Angeles queries are already coming to the Garden Society president concerning this community innovation.

It takes money, however, to buy lumber and awning, and to erect counters. Two Glendale citizens have shown their patriotic approval of this patriotic enterprise by sending $10 ($5 each) to the Garden Society to help in its meritorious work for the public good. The Society has never made any solicitation for funds; it confidently believes that its good works speak loud and clear, and that an appreciative public will cheerfully offer enough money to carry out the community vegetable market in a becoming and successful manner.

Signed, NANNO WOODS.

NEW THOUGHT

"The Master Alchemist!" When we think of our own special civilization we are apt to think it so much better than any other. While it is true that the civilization of the masses is better than in those wonderful ancient civilizations of Babylonia and of Egypt, those wonderful minds have never been excelled. The sciences had their start in those early days. Chemistry takes its name from the City of Chem of Egypt. Old teachers rose in this ancient city and taught the transmutation of the baser metals into gold.

People seem always to have sensed that somehow eternal beauty, youth and power were theirs but sought externally for them as did Ponce de Leon in his quest for the fountain of youth.

The three ingredients mixed in the iron retort were mercury, salt, and sulphur out of which those alchemists of old transmuted pure gold.

Let us use these as symbols of something that happens in these craniums of ours when the intellect instead of mercury, the emotions in the place of salt, and the will instead of the sulphur, are used in the transmutation of the highest purpose for man.

The intellect must be developed, must be able to focus on one particular thing and shut out other things. Your intellectual powers cannot be too keen. Cultivate the memory. Some have verbal memories, others logical memories; the verbal without the logical is little good. Anyone can have a logical memory who really thinks.

The second most important thing is the emotions. You may feel poor, then you are poor. Some are able to demonstrate material wealth but do not change the feeling of poverty and cannot be opulent because of the lack of feeling. We can change the form of a thing through thinking. We image or visualize daily in our processes of thought. We may draw a complete outline of a new picture but if we retain the same old feeling, we don't change the quality, only the form. Can you feel rich, serene, and poised in the face of poverty, of exasperation or of one who ruffles you? The inside must be controlled. You can't control the tongue if the feeling isn't in subjection. When the majority of the people in the world feel kindly and tolerant toward each other, governments will change.

The third ingredient in this transmutation of baser metals into that pure alloy is the power of will. We have wilfulness but not that steady, persistent holding of the object ever in mind. Give up the method if need be, but hold to the point. Nothing is too big or too much to accomplish, if we will. We all have within us something much bigger than we can express. We appreciate wonderful things because within is something wonderful.

When you have thought out what you want to be, don't feel what you don't want to be; but hold to your point and success will come."

Mrs. Becker will speak again the evening of June 3rd, at eight o'clock. Next Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Dennerlin of 1304 North Central avenue will entertain for the day Dr. and Mrs. Frank Riley of Los Angeles. At 8 o'clock in the evening Dr. Riley will talk on "Divine Healing." All who are interested are cordially invited to hear Dr. Riley at this informal evening gathering.

GIVES THEM TIME

Grocer—"Did that watermelon I sold you do the whole family?"

Customer—"Very nearly. The doctor is calling yet."
